Military Bill of the Reconstruction Committee.

Whereas the pretended State governments of the late so-called Confederate States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas, were set up without the authority of Congress and without the sanction of the people; and whereas the said pretended governments afford no adequate protection for life or property, but countenance and encourage lawlessness and crime; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said so-called States until loyal and republican State governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the so-called States shall be divided into military districts, and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed; and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina, the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida, the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. That it shall be the duty of the General of the army to assign to the command of each of the said districts an officer of the regular army not below the rank of brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their right of person and property; to suppress insurrection, disorder, and violence, and to punish, or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the public peace and criminals; and to this end he may employ civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try the offenders, or when in his judgment it may be necessary, for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, anything in the constitution and laws of the so-called States to the contrary notwithstanding; and all legislative or judicial proceedings or processes to prevent or control the proceedings of said military tribunals, and all interference by said pretended State governments with the exercise of military authority under this act, shall be void and of no effect.

Sec. 4. That courts and judicial officers of the United States shall not issue writs of habeas corpus in behalf of persons in military custody unless some commissioned officer on duty in the district wherein the person is detained shall endorse upon said petition a statement certifying, upon honor, that he has knowledge or information as to the causes and circumstances of the alleged detention, and that he believes the same to be wrongful; and further, that he believes that the endorsed petition is preferred in good faith and in furtherance of justice, and not to hinder or delay the punishment of crime. All persons put under arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted.

Sec. 5. That no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the superior officer in command of the district; and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions.

[And "to this complexion," Reconstruction—Union—Restoration—Peace—Harmony, Good Feelings—have all come at last!!]

EMIGRATION OF COLORED PEOPLE.—There is a very considerable emigration of colored people going on towards Florida. The inducements in wages, &c., in some of the Cotton States are beginning to have an effect. The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal says:

"There seems to be a general movement on the part of freedmen to emigrate to the Southwest. Planters and agents from various cotton States have been canvassing our own and adjoining States in the hope of procuring labor for their plantations for the coming season. Their efforts have been so far successful as to induce a large portion of our laboring population to accept their inducements."

The National Intelligencer says:

"This movement of freedmen toward the Southwest is the first practical illustration of the theory of Hon. Robert J. Walker, urged in his argument in favor of the annexation of Texas, that that country will be the gateway through which the negro population of the South would ultimately pass into Mexico and the States of Central America, the climates of which are adapted to their natures."

ACTIVE OLD AGE.—Count Philip Segur, whose account of the disastrous Russian campaign of 1812 charmed so many readers nearly fifty years ago, has now at the advanced age of 87 years, just completed a history of Napoleon I. and his contemporaries. Active in nation, way and in a humble way is an old lady of Athens, Maine, who now, in her 101st year, has, in this season, spun and twisted a large quantity of cotton yarn. The same State can boast of another old lady, aged 87 years, who has spun this season so far four hundred skeins of yarn, averaging from eight to ten skeins a day.

TO MAKE TOUGH BEEF TENDER.—The London Queen says: "To those who have worn down their teeth in masticating poor tough cow beef, we will say that carbonate of soda will be found a remedy for the evil. Cut the steak about the day before the using, into slices about two inches thick, rub over them a small quantity of soda, wash off next morning, cut it into suitable thickness, and cook as usual. The same process will answer for fowls, legs of mutton, &c. Try it, all who love delicious tender dishes of beef."
